SWANSON MAY FACE A FIGHT

Carter Glass or H. St. George Tucker Spoken of as Competitor

DECISION THIS WEEK

Harmony at State Convention May be Disturbed By Intraparty Struggles At Roanoke.

Washington, May 31—A big surprise was sprung in Virginia politics yesterday when it became known that a definite but quiet movement has been launched during the past few days to bring out opposition to the renomination of Senator Claude A. Swanson, in the Democratic primaries next August and that either Representative Carter Glass or Harry St. George Tucker would be the opposing candidate. A formal announcement from either Mr. Glass or Mr. Tucker is believed to be imminent and it may be made either today or tomorrow on the eve of the Roanoke convention.

This report caused a profound sensation in Virginia politics. Representative Glass, being importuned from all over the State to get into the Senatorial race, stated last January that he would not be a candidate on account of his health and on account of the time and attention he must give to the Rural Credits legislation in Congress. Some sporadic efforts were made then to get Mr. Tucker to make an announcement but these failed. It was then thought that Senator Swanson would be renominated without opposition, and the Senatorial question apparently was forgotten.

It developed yesterday that the movement to bring out an opposing candidate to Senator Swanson took form last Saturday. Mr. Tucker came to Washington to make an address before the League to Enforce Peace. He saw Mr. Glass and urged him to announce his candidacy for the Senate, saying the contest over National Committeeman between the Lynchburg Congressman and Col. Rorer A. James, of Danville, had brought out the fact that Mr. Glass possessed an enormous strength with the rank and file of the people. That day Mr. James withdrew as a candidate for National Committeeman and was announced my some of the Democratic leaders from Virginia that peace and harmony would mark the Roanoke convention.

Mr. Glass demurred to Mr. Tucker's suggestions, saying that he did not see how he could reconsider his January decision. Then Mr. Glass urged Mr Tucker to make the fight against Mr. Swanson. The latter left Washington without announcing what he would do. During the last two days some prominent Virginia Democrats learned of the conversation between Mr. Tucker and Mr. Glass, wired Mr. Tucker and urged him to make his formal announcement for the Senate.

Mr. Tucker, taking these telegrams as added interest in the movement to bring about opposition to Senator Swanson yesterday wired Mr. Glass to make the race. He declared that if the Lynchburg Congressman would run, his friends in Virginia were willing to undertake the campaign and make the fight themselves without requiring him to leave Washington to make a speech or help organize the campaign. Upon receipt of this telegram Mr. Glass declined to state what he would do. He said he preferred to make no comment upon the likelihood of opposition to Senator Swanson until further developments.

Representative Jones, who is a close friend of both Mr. Tucker and Mr. Glass, stated that he saw Mr. Tucker when he was in Washington Saturday, but nothing was said to lead him to believe that the Lexington lawyer would or would not be a candidate for the Senate.

The time limit to file candidacy papers for the Virginia Senatorial race expires June 2, the date of the State convention.

REGRET BRUMBACK'S DEATH.

Bar Adopts Resolutions Today—Funeral at Luray.

At a meeting of the members of the bar of Alexandria which was held in the corporation court this morning, a committee composed of S. G. Brent, Douglass Stuart and J. Randall Caton, presented resolutions of regret at the death of R. D. Brumback, a member of the bar who died suddenly yesterday morning, and the resolutions were unanimously adopted. John M. Johnson presided at the meeting.

The following are the resolutions:

"The Bar of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, having learned of the sudden and untimely death of their friend and fellow member, Robley D. Brumback, desire to place on record the following testimonial of their high appreciation and affection for him;

"Therefore, Be it resolved; that in his death the Bar of the City of Alexandria has lost a valued member, one possessed of the highest professional ideals and endowed with qualities of both mind and heart that endeared him to all his associates; and in his private and public life he was faithful and conscientious in the discharge of every duty and obligation, and won for himself the confidence and respect of all with whom he came in contact.

"Be it further resolved; That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that a copy of the same be published in the Alexandria Gazette, and that they be presented to the Courts which are to be held in the City of Alexandria and in the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit."

Mr. Brumback's remains were sent to Luray, Va., for interment yesterday and the funeral will take place tomorrow. Walter Foster, A. G. Uhler, George W. Zachary, and R. H. Cox will go from here today as representative of Alexandria-Washington lodge of Masons at the funeral.

REBUKE TO "PEEPING TOMS."

Philadelphia Magistrate Sends Offenders to Jail for Thirty Days.

Philadelphia, May 31. — Three young men accused of "peeping" at "spooning" couples in Fairmont Park were today advised by Magistrate Stevenson to make an effort to cure themselves of the "Peeping" habit by getting girls of their own. The magistrate offered this advice to the prisoners, after he had sentenced them to thirty days each in the county prison.

"The meanest man in this world," said the magistrate, "is the man who sneaks up in the dark and spies upon a loving couple. What is it to you if they're holding hands? Supposing the young man does steal a kiss and say things that sound silly to you. It is none of your business. You have no right to be snooping around like a mangy jackal, when the young lover slips his arm around his sweetheart's waist and gazes lovingly into her eyes. It is likely that this young couple are passing through the most idealistic moment of their lives, and it is outrageous that prying, sneaky eyes should profane that moment."

PENETRATE GERMAN AFRICA.

British Invading Force Compels Evacuation of Town.

London, May 31. —The British force which is invadin German East Africa from the southwest, and which yesterday, was reported to have penetrated 20 miles into German territory on the front between Lakes Tanganyika and Niassa, has made still further progress, according to an official statement issued last night The statement says:

"In continuing the report of his operations sent on May 25, Brigadier-General Northey telegraphs that his operations against Neu Langenberg (north of Lake Niassa) were successful. The enemy was compelled to evacuate the town. We occupied it today, capturing large quantities of ammunition, food and stores of all kinds.

"An enemy garrison which is holding Marema, 23 miles east northeast of Abereorn, on the Rhodesian border, has been invested."

WILSON'S SHADOW DIMS THEIR ARDOR

G. O. P. Hosts Soberly Consider President as a Rival

HUGHES BOOM GROWS

Frank Hitchcock Has Started Trouble in the Camp by Assuming to Speak For Justice

Chicago, May 31.—More disturbing to the peace of mind o f "straight goods" and Progressive Republican leaders gathering for their conventions a week from tomorrow, that any of the candidates for the nomination—or nominations to be conferred— is Woodrow Wilson. His name is heard more frequently than that of Hughes, Roosevelt, Root or the dozen or more "favorite sons."

The Democratic President is actually the central figure in the situation, which provides no tangible foundation upon which to base an accurate prediction as to the identity of the opposing candidate fortunate—or unfortunate—enough to win the dubious honor of running against him.

The more seasoned of the practical Republican operators, in both camps are frank enought to concede that picking a man to head their ticket involves less risk than picking the right one. The theory of the "straight goods" captains like Crane, Penrose, Barnes, the Jersey Murphy, Keiling, Williams, West and their fellow-experts, "that a yellow dog can beat Wilson," is being rapidly dissipated by the reports brought by leaders and delegates from their respective States. These men admit that the President is growing in popularity and that in some parts of the country his re-election is confidently predicted.

Former Postmaster General Frank Hitchcock's positive declaration that Justice Hughes will accept the nomination if it is offered him, despite the fact that the Justice himself has not indicated his attitude toward the proposition, set all the leaders lined up against both Hughes and Roosevelt by the ears.

Hitchcock himself is about as popular with the majority of these leaders as a man wearing a British uniform would be in Berlin. He made a lot of noise on his advent in Chicago as the personal custodian of the Hughes boom. He crowded off toward the edge of the spotlight and is coming in for a roasting at the hands of both the Hughes men and the opposition.

He has undoubtedly done an almost irreparable injury to the cause of the Justice, and the latter's supporters are quite as indignant over his pose as Hughes' manager as the other fellows who want to beat the distinguished jurist. Just what Hichcock has done to promote the political ambitions of the Justice—if he has done anything—is not quite clear to even the men who are offering even money on the chances of Mr. Hughes.

Some of Hughes' friends tried to get him on the long-distance telephone yesterday to urge him to call Hitchcock off. The reply that came from his secretary was not unexpected. It was in effect that the Justice was devoting his entire attention to his judicial duties, and had no statement to make as to Hitchcock or anyone else.

This evasiveness on the part of the Justice served to confirm the impression that the Justice is "out for the nomination." While the predictions of his supporters are quite as optimistic as at any previous stage of the game, the fight to head him off is hourly increasing in vigor.

WAITE SHEDS TEARS

Would Die a Dozen Deaths if He Could Undo the Wrong He Committed

New York, May 31—Declaring that he had done his wife a great wrong but would gladly pay with his life for killing her father and mother, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, in the tombs, yesterday declared that he had absolutely no intention of committing suicide to cheat the electric chair.

As he talked tears came to his eyes and once they streamed down his face as he mentioned the name of his wife. He referred to her as "poor girl," and said he would willingly die a dozen deaths if he could undo the wrong he had done to her.

The tearful part of his interview was only passing, and as he dried his eyes he said he wanted to leave a message to young men. This, he said, should be:

"Fear God and do right. Thats sesential. I admit that love of money was my ruin. I just worshipped it. I have had my fling. It was love of money rather than my love of women that has brought me to a prison cell."

Waite laughed at the idea that he would try to cheat the electric chair. He said: "If they locked all the bolts and doors in this prison and engaged a steamer to take me to Europe I would not stir a step. I don't intend to cheat the electric chair of its rightful victim. Will I again attempt suicide? Why—" He did not finish the answer, but he gave the impression that the thought was never now in his mind.

"But why did you once try cheat the electric chair?" he was asked.

"It was on account of my wife—Mrs. Waite—poor girl. How she has suffered. I was responsible for it all. Of course, my poor father and mother and brothers, and Miss Catherine Peck and Percy Peck have all suffered, too. They suffered most. But it was for Mrs. Waite that I felt the deepest. If I could have only died when I tried to, she would have been spared much pain and a terrible ordeal."

ITALIANS RESIST AUSTRIAN ATTACK

Troops of Francis Joseph Unable to Dislodge Defenders

FIERCE CANNON DUEL

Teuton Successes in Italy in Few Days More Significant Than Year's Gains of Italy

Rome, May 31—The Austrians have resumed the offensive in the Posina zone and along the Upper Astico, in the southern Tyrol. They attacked the Italian positions south of the Posina after violent artillery preparation, but, according to last night's official statement from the War Office were unable to dislodge the defenders.

Berlin, May 31—"The fighting in the Southern Tyrol," says a correspondent at the front with the Austro-Hungarian forces, "has developed into a mobile campaign. The successes won during the first few days of the Austro-Hungarian offensive are of incomparably more significance than all those obtained by the Italians during the entire previous year. The Italians at no time succeeded in turning the warfare to another form than frontal attacks in which successes are without effect upon neighboring sectors. The Austro-Hungarian attack, however, resulted in the formation of a curving front, an advance along which provided an increasing number of sectors which could be menaced by outflanking movements and taken under crossfire. For this reason the Austrians were enabled to make the relatively large gains they have scored.

"In the course of a few days the Austro-Hungarians regained a large part of the terrain which they had given up voluntarily at the beginning of the war and in addition crossed the enemy's frontier at several points. The success was especially notable in the Folgaria plateau, which had been a pivot in the defensive system about Trent but now has become a base for attack. From the Folgaria plateau the Crown Prince's troops began an irresistible advance toward the south after the left wing in the Sugana valley had insured its safety by the storming of Armentara ridge and after the right wing had likewise secured itself in the Adige valley by the storming of Lugna Tarta."

ENGLISH TOWNS IN DISTRESS.

Almost Ruined by Zeppelins—Meat Rations Loom up

London, May 31.—Distress in East coast towns as a result of the war was discussed in the House of Commons today, and members for the constituencies affected made an appeal to the Government for relief. It came out during the debate that Zeppelins have visited Yarmouth more than 30 times.

Tourists to Yarmouth and other resorts who, in former years, numbered thousands, have dwindled to almost none. Many residents of the towns have departed, while others, chiefly women and children, proceed to interior places each night.

Arthur Fell, Conservative member for Great Yarmouth, pointed out that 40 per cent. of the people of Grimsby have been dependent in the past on visitors for a living, and are now without this means of obtaining a livelihood.

TIMNEY LEAVES TOWN.

Well-Known "Irish Shoemaker," Departs for New York.

Stephen Timney, who has resided in this city during the past ten years, has shaken the dust of Alexandria and left for New York, where he will reside with his children in future.

"Timney," the name by which he is generally known, was born in Dublin about seventy years ago. After an apprenticeship with a shoemak. on the Anchor liner, Cameronia, and on the Anchor Liner Cameronia, and shortly after the close of the war between the states, took up his residence in New York. About that time he was a member of the Fenian Brotherhood and followed that organization when it invaded Canada and was arrested and sent back to this country. Being of a roving disposition, he traveled over a large portion of the United States, going from the Atlantic to the Pacific and worked at his trade in most of the important cities of the country.

He has had been many adventures during his long life. On one occasion he was shanghaied in Baltimore and forced to make a voyage with oystermen down Chesapeake Bay.

About ten years ago he located in Washington, and subsequently left that city and opened a shoemaker's shop in Alexandria, where he remained until recently.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Delivers Admonition to Citizens of Foreign Birth—Vigorously Applauded.

Washington, May 31—President Wilson delivered a Memorial day address here yesterday, in which he defined the spirit of America, warned citizens of foreign birth not to set themselves against the purposes of the nation, called upon young men to perform voluntary military service and defended his recent suggestion for an alliance of nations to preserve peace. He spoke at Arlington National Cemetery before an audience made up largely of civil war veterans, who applauded him vigorously.

While he declared he had no harshness in his heart for Americans of foreign birth and expected them still to love the sources of their origin, the President said "America must come first in every purpose we entertain, and every man must count upon being cast out of our confidence, cast out even of our tolerance, who does not submit to that great ruling principle."

CARRANZA'S DEMAND

"Unfriendly Act," He Says, Uuless Army is Withdrawn or Explanation is Made

Washington, May 31—Unless the United States withdraws its troops from Mexican soil, or at least explains their present purpose in Mexico and reason for their remaining, in view of their present "idleness" the Carranza government will consider their further presence there an unfriendly act.

This is the gist of a note from General Carranza, delivered to the State Department today by Mexican Ambassador-designate Arredondo.

Mendez received his instructions yesterday, and at the same time Arredondo was directed to deliver the note to the State Department.

Justice Continues Injunction Against Treasury Officials Who Hold Money

Washington, May 31—The injunction suit against John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, and other Treasury officials, brought by the Riggs National Bank, was decided today by Justice McCoy.

The court continued in effect the temporary injunction restraining the defendants from covering into the Treasury the $5,000 due the bank as interest on Government bonds.

This is a victory for the bank, which sued for the payment of the money. Under the court's action the money now must be paid over to the bank.

In all other respects the complaint of the bank was dismissed.

Mrs. Park Agnew is reported as seriously ill.

PARIS ADMITS LOSS

Entire Front Between Southern Ridge of Dead Man Hill and Cumieres Involved

Paris, May 31—The hundredth day of the world's greatest battle, at Verdun, found the crown prince rushing into action fresh legions amid the roar of hundreds of great guns west of the Meuse.

The new German offensive, initiated Sunday, is the final supreme assault, designed to pierce the French lines, all French military critics agreed today. The battle continued throughout last night, and still was raging early today.

The volume and violence of the artillery fire, together with the frequency and intensity of the infantry attacks, eclipses anything seen on any battlefield in the worlds history.

The Germans are hurrying into action against Verdun every man the Kaiser can spare. A million men will be hammering against the French lines before the week is over. The Kaiser himself is reported to be returning to the Verdun front to witness the final assault.

Faced with these reports, the French public remained utterly calm today. The official communiques are being scanned with an interest unequaled since the Germans struck the first blow against the fortress.

But there is not the slightest doubt that General Nivelle if forced to retire upon the northwestern forts of Verdun, will maintain his positions there with the same tenacity that brought the Germans to a halt on the northern and northeastern sectors of Verdun.

Berlin, May 31—The capture of French positions along the entire front between the southern ridge of Dead Man Hill and the village of Cumieres, south of Corbeaux wood Cumieres woods, was announced yesterday by the War Office.

Thirty-five officers, including several staff officers, and 1,313 unwounded men were captured by the Germans. Two counter attacks against Cumieres village by the French were repulsed.

Paris, May 31—A strong attack was made Monday night with a fresh division of German troops on the Verdun front west of the Meuse, between Dead Man's Hill and Cumieres. The War Office statement says there was a slight French retirement on the Bethincourt-Cumieres road.

Attempts of the Germans to gain ground on the remainder of the positions under attack were repulsed.

The Germans maintained heavy artillery fire west of Fort Douaumont.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Young Man Meets Spectacular Death on Father's Farm Near Snow Hill

Snow Hill, Md., May 31—Atwood Jenkins, who last September, escaped the bullets of the Italian, Grano, the murderer of Mr. and Mrs. Levin Robinson and Alonzo Redden, was instantly killed on his father's farm, near Snow Hill, by lightning yesterday afternoon.

Young Jenkins had gone to the chicken yard and was carrying an umbrella, A nearby tree was struck by lightning and a bolt passed through the umbrella carried by Jenkins, tearing it into tiny bits. Passengers on the Pocomoke-Snow Hill bus, which was passing the Jenkins farm, saw the descending bolt, which they described as a wonderful electrical discharge which seemed to envelope the farmhouse and shade trees. The force of the explosion was so great as to jar the passing vehicle, frightning the passengers. The storm was most severe in the southern part of the county and has done considerable damage to the hay crop.

LATE COLONEL MOSBY

Alexandria Light Infantry Will Attend Funeral at Warrenton Tomorrow Morning

The body of Col. John S. Mosby, who died yesterday morning at Garfield Hospital, Washington, will leave Washington at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning for Warrenton, to be buried in the family section of the Warrenton Cemetery.

The remaining handful of veterans of the Mosby Rangers, some of them of Washington and others of Warrenton, will escort the body to the grave.

Among the relatives who will accompany the body to Warrenton will be Col. Mosby's brother-in-law, Charles W. Russell, former minister to Persia; three daughters of the deceased, Miss Ada Mosby, Miss Pauline Mosby, and Mrs. Stuart Mosby Coleman; a nephew, Harold Mosby, and three grandsons, Beverly Coleman, Mosby Campbell and Spottsford Campbell.

Wishing to do all honor to the memory of Colonel John S. Mosby, Governor Stuart yesterday authorized Adjutant-General W. W. Sale to empanel four companies of State militia to attend the funeral at Warrenton tomorrow morning.

Arrangements were made by General Sale last night to order out the Warrenton, Alexandria, Culpeper and Charlottesville companies under command of Major Peyton, of Charlottesville. The troops will proceed to Warrenton late tonight or early tomorrow morning and return to their home stations after the funeral services.

Because of the fact that the officers, including noncommissioned officers and quartermasters, are attending the State instruction camp for officers at Roanoke, some difficulty was found in getting into touch with local commands last night. The ranking officers at home will in each case be in command of the companies, and will report to Major Peyton as to the movement of their men.

EAGLES BEAT WHITE SOX.

The Alexadria Eagles humbled their local rivals, White Sox Athletic Club, in an interesting five inning game yesterday afternoon, on north Alfred street grounds, score 1 to 0, White, Eagles star twirler and Jimmy Quayle, Manager Payne's best bet, engaged in a pitchers duel but the latter allowed a pass to be followed by Astryke's slashing drive to center for the only score of the game. Lefty White's was in great form and had the hard hitting White Sox at his mercy and his feat of striking out eight out of the first nine men in the losers line-up and retiring eleven in all by the way of the strike-out route was easily the feature of the game, which was called at the end of the fifth inning on account of rain. Score by innings:

Alex. Eagles .... 0 0 0 1 x—1 2 0

Batteries—Eagles, White and Robinson; White Sox, Quayle and Ward. Umpires "Turk" Murphy and "Pete" Brenner.

The graduating test in expression and physical culture of St. Mary's Academy will be held at the Academy on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock There are three graduates, Misses Julia Virginia Downey, Julia Anna Duncan and Mary Katherine Quinn, and an interesting program will be rendered in which these young ladies will take the principal parts.

The program will be as follows:

Pantomine—The Graduates.

Piano duet—"Polonaise"—Chopin, Anna and Helen Cook.

Monologue— "Christopher's Aunts" Virginia Downey; "A Social Game", Julia Duncan; "Aunt Jane", Mary Quinn.

Private Pupils' Program.

The program presented last evening by the pupils in Expression at St. Mary's Academy was a highly creditable oe. Little Nancy Wattles made her first appearance on the stage in what "Somebody Did." Though a beginner in the art of expression little Miss Wattles work of last evening was a surprise to her many friends. Miss Caroline Wattles gave— very creditably too —a more dignified monologue on "Getting a History Lesson." Miss Mary Lennon, who is always a favorite gave "The Wind and the Moon." In "Mammy's Baby" Miss Eula Puckett made an ideal pickanniny. Her rendition of the part was inimitable—Miss Agnes Donaldson, in "Too Much for Pa." Miss Evelyn Howard in "Rich, Richer, Richest and Miss Florence Evans in Pink Carnations" were delightful even to those who expect much in the art of expression from these young ladies.

The master piece of the program was easily Miss Emma Hubbard's "buy my Roses." The work called for in the selection was almost beyond the reach of an amateur. To say that Miss Hubbard more than reached its demands is high praise. Delightful musical numbers of song, piano and violin intersperesed the literary numbers—Misses T. Grisby, A. King, H. Crown and E. McGahey, opened the program with a Concert Polka. The young violinists were Misses F. Franey and Josephine Rammage who did their parts creditably. Other piano selections were well given by Misses E. Rammage, G. Cabell, J. Rammage, P. Harrington, E. Hubbard and Virginia Downey. Miss Gladys Gaines, in a piano solo and Miss Mary Ewald in a vocal solo were at their best last evening.

At the close of the program Rev. Lawrence Kelly congratulated the young ladies on their success and spoke words of fatherly counsel and advice. On June 2d., at 7:30 the Graduates in Expression give their graduation test.

ELECTROCUTED AT PHONE

Stanley Smallwood Meets Instant Death at Bluemont

Stanley Smallwood, nineteen, was accidentally electrocuted at Bluemont Monday afternoon, when he touched the metal part of a telephone in the Washington and Old Dominion railway station.

A heavily charged wire is said to have been blown from a pole and fallen across the telephone wire, sending 33,000 volts through it.

The youth is said to have been standing outside the station when he reached through an open window and touched the telephone. He was killed to the ground and died within a few moments.

The fact that he was standing on the wet ground when his hand came in contact with the telephone is said to have been responsible for his death, as the train dispatcher, who was standing on wood when he touched the instrument a few moments before, received only a slight shock.

ROOSEVELT'S PLATFORM.

The announcement recently made by Theodore Roosevelt of his conviction that universal military training should be the law in the United States is calculated to still further weaken his chances to again become President of the United States. The present fearful war in Europe is an object lesson, one which should suffice for a century. Germany, one of the most advanced nations of the earth, has spent millions of dollars during the past forty years or more in perfecting a military system which surpasses any of ancient or modern times, with the result that the country is gradually bleeding to death, virtually fighting for the life of an empire which a few years ago it supposed was in a position to defy the world. The perpetual drilling in that country and the voices of cross drill sergeant have drowned the cooings of the gentle dove, until the nation, war mad, is believed to have committed the greatest blunder in history by launching war which is sapping every resource and placing crape upon every door in her country.

Nations as well as individuals are liable to become mischievous when they realize they possess power. The common dilment, swell head, is sure to follow, and while church bells are tolling and Hague conferences are mapping out plans for the millenium the rattle of sabres and the monotonous tread of soldiers are heard.

The United States should, in a measure, be always prepared for eventualities, but to make an armed camp out of this county, one of the most blessed upon the earth, would be a transition obnoxious to all conservative and peaceful minds.

If compulsory military training is Roosevelt's paramount issue, the deeper he is snowed under the better. If he and sons are inclined to become soldiers, the way is open to them. Let them enlist and make military record in Mexico where their service could be utilized at once.

WOULD TROUBLE THE WATERS.

A dispatch from Washington, published elsewhere in the Gazette, shows that there has been another attempt to poke the coals and cause a temporary glare among embers which were about to die. It seems to cause disgruntlement to some restive members of the democratic party that Senator Claude Swanson has a clear field before him and that his election to succeed himself is inevitable. His toga has ever been coveted by a few, but, like Caesar when tendered the crown, they gaze upon it but have not the temerity to attempt to unhorse the able Virginian who has ever showed himself to be the right man in the places of honor and responsibility which he has filled.

Harry St. George Tucker, is now spoken of as a competitor against the junior Senator, and Representiv Carter Glass, who had declared himself out of the race, is also being urged to reconsider his determination.

The fact that attempts are being made to revive this matter upon the eve of the meeting of the Roanoke Convention, after a serious party issue had been healed, and when it was supposed that democratic harmony was assured, is unfortunate. It was hoped that nothing would be sprung to trouble the waters which had become tranquil during the past few days.

DR WAITE'S REMORSE

Doctor Arthur Warren Waite, who it is allegel caused the deaths of his wife's father and mother, shed tears yesterday when his attention was called to his young wife, rendered an orphan by double murder. Reckless and defiant of the laws and his Creator and fellow-man, his love of money led him to formulate a plan to kill his stepfather and stepmother together with the wife of his bosom in order to get possession of money

When Solomon had indulged in all the follies and sensualities of this world, and recapitulated them in the Book of Ecclesiastes, declaring them to be vanity of vanities, he closes his epic with these words: "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: "Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

Waite, in his remorse yesterday said: "Fear God and do right. This is essential. I admit the love of money was my ruin. I just worshipped it. I have had my fling. It was the love of money rather than the love of women that has brought me to a prison cell."

COST OF ROYALTY.

King George of England receives close to $2,500,000 per pear. The King of Italy receives $3,750,000, the Emperor of Germany $4,600,000; the the Emperor of Austria $5,250,000; the Czar of Russia, $8,000,000. The German, Austrian and Russian monarchs have large private incomes apart from their annual allowances.

Levi Collington, Detroit's leading betting commissioner, has prepared a slate of the presidential possibilities. Mr. Roosevelt and Justice Hughes are figured as even choices in the fight for the Republican nomination.

Seventeen thousand Austro-Hungarian prisoners of war, out of about 80,000 confined in the camp at Orenburg, eastern Russia, have died owing to the absence of good sanitary measures, bad food, lack of clothing and exposure to the cold, according to a report of the American embassy at Petrograd,

There is every reason to believe that the Irish question has been satisfactorily settled. The basis for the settlement includes putting into operation immediately the term of the home rule bill for all Ireland, including Ulster, the same to hold good during the term of the war with the option to Ulster at the termination of the war to withdraw from the arrangement and revert to the present standing.

Betting in Wall Street on the Republican nomination for the Presidency has become active with Justice Hughes the favorite. Chester Thompson, who handles most of the big wagers in the financial district, reported that about $225,000 had been placed in his hands to bet on Hughes at even money, this money coming largely from Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston. On Saturday the odds against Hughes were 7 to 5.

Michael, aged 8, Mary's brother, leaped in and tried until exhausted to reach the girls. Then he sank.

Completion of an organization of business men in every State in the Union pledged to use their influence to induce delegates to the Republican national convention to vote for Theodore Roosevelt, as the party's nominee for President, was announced in Chicago yesterday, by Herbert L. Satterlee, acting manager of the Chicago Roosevelt headquarters. J. Ogden Armour is head of the Roosevelt business men's organization in Illinois.

An influential member of the diplomatic corps in Washington has received what he believes is authentic information that Great Britain will make concessions to the United States in the dispute over allied interference with American mails. The change in feeling on the part of Great Britain first became evident, it was pointed out, when she decided to release the forty-eight nationals of the central powers who had been taken from the American ship China by a British cruiser.

Three persons are reported killed and fifty-three injured and property amounting to thousands of dollars destroyed early yesterday when a tornado passed over a territory covering 100 miles about Memphis. Great damage resulted in Memphis, Many homes were damaged by falling trees and some houses were uncoofed. The storm lasted twenty minutes. Reports from Marion, Little Rock, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama report serious damage to crops, houses and stock. The velocity of the wind was 125 miles an hour.

A party of young men and women of Washington who made up a hayride picnic party to Chapel Point, Md., had a narrow escape yesterday when the autotruck on which they were riding ran into a ditch by the road. The accident occurred during a blinding rainstorm, 3 miles south of La Plata, Charles county, as the party was returning to Washington. Several of the party were slightly injured, but none seriously. A big touring car running toward Washington, it is said, crowded the truck too close to the edge of the soft embankment, causing the front wheels to sink in the dirt and the machine to slip into the ditch.

Shouts of excitement over the brave finish of the senior four-oared shell race yesterday at New York, the climax of the Harlem River rowing regatta, were suddenly changed to exclamations of horror at 5,000 persons saw one of the fatal shells caught in an eddy and whirled into the knife-like rudder of the tug Manhatten, moored at the finish, and a second shell, unable to stop, crash into the wreckage. One after another the heads of the exhausted rowers popped to the surface after the crash and were hauled aboard the tug. Melvin McKenna, the young stroke oarsman of the shell of Wanetah Boat Club, of Flusking Bay, was drowned.

HURLED CLASP KNIFE

Incident of Roosevelt's Visit to Kansas City Yesterday

Kansas City, May 31—An incident of little consequence in itself, but one that served to make the police guard even more strict, occurred shortly after the Roosevelt automobile left the railway station yesterday.

Mr. Roosevelt was standing bowing in his car. Ernest O. Shell, a member of the American Legion, was walking by the side of the car as a part of the escort. He heard something strike the footboard of the car and an open jackknife fell at his feet He picked it up and looked quickly into the crowd.

He fancied the knife came from a tall man with a brown suit and straw hat who stood on the curb.

Shell handed the knife to a policeman and suggested an arrest be made, but nothing was done. Shell said he fancied the act was that of a drunken man.

The knife had a wooden handle and one blade. No report of the incident had been made to police headquarters late this afternoon.

Mr. McGrath, Col. Roosevelt's secretary, was seated on the right side of the front seat of the motor car. him, leaning forward to maintain a balance while the machine was in motion.

The butt of the knife struck McGrath's arm below the elbow. It was not thrown with sufficient force to bruise his arm, he said. He said the blade was about three inches long, but that the knife was of a cheap grade, and was not of enough weight to have injured him severely had the blade, instead of the butt, struck

RECENT IRISH REVOLT

Nearly 2,000 Persons Said to be in English Detention Camps

New York, May 31— Nearly 2,000 persons now are in English detention camps as a result of the recent uprising in Ireland, according to information brought to the Irish World by a special messenger from Ireland The prisoners are said to include Arthus Griffiths, editor of Nationality; P. T. Daly, general secretary of the Gaelic League, and Alderman Cole.

The Irish World asserted that the names and addresses supplied showed the rebellion spread through every county in Ireland. Sixty-seven persons, it was said, were sentenced to death by court-martial. Of these fifteen were executed, 79 were sentenced to prison from one year to life. The newspaper added:

"The authorities have stated that two other men named McIntyre and Dixon were shot at Portbello barracks with Sheehy Skeffington, but Mr. Ginnell, member of parliament, said in the house of commons that 50 men were stood up against a wall and shot at that time, their bodies carted to Glasnevin Cemetery and buried in one pile. Coroner's inquiries show that many prisoners were killed by the soldiers. Inquests have been held on many whose bullet riddled bodies have been dug out of cellars. The civil casualties reported to the present are:

Killed, 180; wounded, 604. Two hundred and sixteen victims of gunshot wounds have been buried in Glasnevin Cemetery and 46 in Dean's Grange Cemetery."

Dublin, May 31—John MacNeil, president of the Irish volunteers, has been sentenced to penal servitude for life, following conviction by court-martial.

SIX MEN ARE LOST

Berlin Says German Steamer Was Shelled After It Had Stopped

Berlin, May 31—Six men were lost in the attack by a submarine on the German steamer Kolga, sunk in the Baltic on May 17, according to a dispatch from Lubeck, where the survivors of the steamer have arrived.

The dispatch declares that the Kolga was shelled after she had stopped and that the submarine launched a torpedo, which sank the steamer, as the crew was about to lower the lifeboats.

"The submarine appeared suddenly at a distance of 400 meters from the Kolga,'" says the dispatch, "the submarine firing a shot, which went wide upon which the steamer immediately stopped.

"Notwithstanding this, one minute later a second shot was fired, which destroyed the bridge. The crew, only half clad, rushed for the lifeboats while the captain ran into the cabin in an effort to rescue the ships papers.

"The submarine fired two more shots, both of which struck the steamer. One sailor was wounded. Immediately afterward came a torpedo, although it could be clearly observed from the submarine that the crew was about to launch the lifeboats. The torpedo caused the steamer to sink immediately, the captain, both the helmsmen, the cook and two sailors perishing.

"The enemy submarine opened fire without warning and continued firing in spite of the immediate stopping of the steamer. Furthermore, the torpedo was fired as the crew was about to enter the lifeboats, so that six out of nineteen sailors lost their lives."

London, May 31—Lloyds announces that the British steamer Southgarth has been sunk. Twenty-two of her crew were picked up. The British steamer Dalegarth has also been sunk.

Algiers, May 31— The British steamer Trunkby has been sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine. The captain and members of the crew were landed yesterday.

A SYMBOL OF HEALTH

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.
